Fort Indiantown Gap, Pennsylvania – The Pennsylvania National Guard Associations (“PNGAS”) and its PNGAS Business Action Council (“EAC”), chaired by Brigadier General (Retired) Wilbur E. Wolf, III, are pleased to announce details for the January 27th PNGAS Virtual Job Fair to be held between 11:00 am and 2:00 pm. All job seekers are welcome and can participate for FREE. Employers can still participate by contacting PNGAS@PNGAS.org. Registration for job seekers is open: <https://pngas.org/mission/jobs-board>

“We are excited to host the January 27th PNGAS VIRTUAL JOB FAIR. Building on the great success of the previous Job Fairs, we’re confident we can help more people,” stated Kathleen Fabrizi, Executive Director, PNGAS. “We are focused on helping Guard members, veterans and their families get good jobs because that helps Guard retention, military families, and local economies. Our programs are made free, through strong corporate donations, and we are very thankful. We have so many strong Employers participating in the Job Fair and the PNGAS Job Board, we’re confident we can help veterans, Guard members, military families and any interested job seeker get good job opportunities.”

For several years, PNGAS has been helping Guard members, veterans, their spouses, military families, and job seekers get job opportunities. Right now, in the middle of COVID, the PNGAS Job Board has over 2,000 job postings. Click here for the PNGAS Job Board.
