

Financial Aid Assistance Webinars – April 2022

Presented by PHEAA: Covering the Gap – pieces of the puzzle to help pay the bill

Understanding education balances can be confusing and whether you're trying to address the costs or beginning to plan for higher education, this review is for you. Join PHEAA representatives Linda Pacewicz and Daniel Wray for a 1 hour webinar that will emphasize best practices (such as seeking grants and scholarships first), remind families about additional resources (such as payment plans), and review private/alternative loans as a last resort in the process of covering the Gap and keeping balances affordable. The discussion will also include the basics of credit, what factors impact a credit score, how can a credit score be improved and the effects on your borrowing capability.

Event Dates

- Tuesday, April 12th – 6:30 PM (ET)
- Tuesday, April 19th – 12:00 PM (ET)

Presented by PHEAA: Borrowing for Education – which loan is right for me?

I've done everything right so far: found the perfect school, made it through the admissions process, filed m FAFSA, filed my State Grant Form, applied for scholarships, researched higher education costs and calculated my funding gap. Now that I can see an education loan is a necessity, where do I go from here? What loan programs are available? What are the advantages and disadvantages of the various types? Join financial aid experts Linda Pacewicz and dan Wray of the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency (PHEAA) for a 1 hour webinar to review the different borrowing options and examine the details associated wit each option. Linda and Dan will answer your questions as you sort out the information and make decisions that are right for you and your family.
