Presented by PHEAA: “Paying for College and Options for Balances”

This one-hour webinar is for students and families that are starting to plan or are in the thick of decisions with May 1st, National Admissions Day, right around the corner. Affording the costs is one topic that is on everyone’s mind. This presentation by PHEAA’s Daniel Wray and Linda Pacewicz of the PAForward program will review the types of Aid available, what needs to be done to check for eligibility and provide tips on the options for covering the balances and making affordable decisions. Don’t miss it!

Thursday, April 20th – 6:30 PM (ET)

Presented by PHEAA: “Financial Aid and Planning Q&A with PHEAA”

Articles related to funding a higher education are in the news almost every day and it can lead even the most knowledgeable of us into information overload. Have you ever wanted to simply ask a few specific questions, yet couldn’t find anyone to ask? Maybe you have questions about planning for college, finding the right school, applying for scholarships, applying for federal and state aid, understanding offer letters, completing loan applications, comparing federal loans to private loans, repaying/refinancing loans after graduation – etc. Join Linda Pacewicz and Daniel Wray of PHEAA for a wide open one hour Q&A session. Ask your questions in an open forum or privately via the chat. Hope to see you there!

Event Dates

Thursday, April 6th – 6:30 PM (ET)
